

American Friends of Neve Hanna proudly announces the Golden Dove of Peace Award

In November 2015 the Golden Dove of Peace was presented to the NEVE HANNA CHILDREN'S HOME in recognition of its outstanding work in educating children in accordance with the principles of tolerance, democracy and love for the fellow man. This prestigious award also recognized NEVE HANNA CHILDREN'S HOME special achievements within the field of international understanding between Jewish, Bedouin and Christian communities. Past recipients of the award include: Amnesty International, Green Peace, Nelson Mandela, Mikhail Gorbachev, Pope Benedict XVI, U.S. President Barack Obama, the Dalai Lama and German Chancellor Angela Merkel. In 2004 the program Path to Peace was established and it includes a daycare center for Jewish and Bedouin children at-risk and a joint Jewish-Bedouin theater group which performs in Europe. For over four decades NEVE HANNA CHILDREN'S HOME has had international and multicultural youth exchange programs fostering mutual respect between Jewish, Bedouin and Christian children. These values are a guiding force for NEVE HANNA CHILDREN'S HOME.
