

The Neve Hanna Children's Home provides the children with an individually suited therapy program designed to help each child overcome past issues, learn how to deal with present issues and rehabilitate to ensure smooth assimilation into society.

Individualized Therapeutic Programs Funded by American Friends of Neve Hanna

Library Program

Fosters a love of reading, provides additional vocational training, instills interpersonal skills and inspires the pursuit of higher education. Funds are needed to stock the shelves of with additional books, purchase tablet computers and provide for a librarian.

Streetlight

The teens plan, fundraise, purchase and pack parcels of food supplies for families in need within the Kiryat Gat community.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Program

Neve Hanna Children's Home is affiliated with the Masorti Movement. It offers a traditional religious education where boys and girls have equal opportunities for learning and participation. The children have their Bar and Bat Mitzvahs during a meaningful ceremony.

Ziv Neurim

The Path of the Sea program works with teenage boys and girls in need of intensive support in their development. Professionally guided group activities on the beach and in the sea are offered around topics such as perseverance, mastering challenges and personal willpower.

Hip-Hop Program

Educational, cultural, therapeutic, and creative, involving a variety of activities such as rapping, dancing, and beatboxing. Hip-Hop provides health benefits, self-expression, a creative outlet, and much more.

Rabbi Ellen Wolintz-Fields, Executive Director of Women's League for Conservative Judaism, has stated "Care and attention given to each individual and unique child at Neve Hanna gives each child hope and opportunity for growth and living a healthy, happy and productive life."
